Dear Judge and everyone affected by my crime,

My name is [your name]. On [date of Crime] I committed a crime. I [describe your crime here...]. I was justly arrested and charged with [describe what you were charged with here] and I now appear before the court to humbly apologize for my reckless actions. I would also like to sincerely address all persons I have involved in the situation I have caused and offer my repentance:

I have had a lot of time to think about my actions and the consequences I must face. I am immensely ashamed of my behavior and I sincerely regret all of the trouble I caused for [Name all persons involved in your crime] and any others that were affected by my actions. I am ashamed that my poor choice to commit a crime effected the innocent victims involved and I extend my deepest apologies to all. I also extend my deepest apologies to the court and it's administrators for causing all of this trouble and using the time and money of the court system.

I accept the consequences of my actions and I am ready to pay for my crime in any manner that the court determines to be just and fair. I have grown and matured from this experience. I am more conscious of my decision making and I understand how my decisions affect those people immediately around me and in my community. It is my desire to amend my behavior and make a positive change in my life and in the community in which I live and depend on.

I understand now that each and every decision I make has consequences, either good or bad and I realize that the direction of my life and destiny are entirely up to me. I do not wish to follow the path (and pattern behavior) of a criminal and I vow to better myself and become a proud, contributing member of my community and a positive influence to those around me. I plead with the court to inflict any rehabilitation deemed appropriate. I stand before you to answer any further questions you may have and accept my fate as mandated by the court of Texas.

Sincerely,
